

Privacy Notice – Student Version

Introduction

Your school is part of the Wandle Learning Trust. Both your school and the Trust takes the security of the data we hold very seriously, you have a legal right to be informed about how our school uses any personal information that we hold about you. To comply with this, we provide a 'privacy notice' to you where we are processing your personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about you.

Wandle Learning Trust are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

Our data protection officer is Mr Hepworth (see 'Contact us' below).

If you have any questions about this notice please talk to your tutor/class teacher.

The personal data we hold

We hold some personal information about you to make sure we can help you learn and look after you at school.

For the same reasons, we get information about you from some other places too – like other schools, the local council and the government.

This information includes:

- personal information (such as name, unique pupil number and address)
- characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility, SEN)
- attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons)
- exclusion reports/Behavioural information (such as incident reports and rewards)
- relevant Medical records
- exam/assessment data (such as KS2 results/external assessments)
- photos
- CCTV footage
- biometric data (for use in the dinner money system in the school canteen)

Why we use this data

We use this data to help run the school, including to:

- get in touch with you and your parents when we need to
- check how you're doing in exams and work out whether you need any extra help
- track how well the school as a whole is performing
- provide appropriate pastoral care
- keep you safe

Our legal basis for using this data

We will only collect and use your information when the law allows us to. Most often, we will use your information where:

- we need to comply with the law
- we need to use it to carry out a task in the public interest (in order to provide you with an education)

Sometimes, we may also use your personal information where:

- you, or your parents/carers have given us permission to use it in a certain way.
- we need to protect your interests (or someone else's interest)

Where we have got permission to use your data, you or your parents/carers may withdraw this at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for permission, if you wish to withdraw your consent then please talk to your tutor or class teacher who will direct you accordingly.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using your information overlap, and there may be several grounds which mean we can use your data.

Collecting this information

While in most cases you, or your parents/carers, must provide the personal information we need to collect, there are some occasions when you can choose whether or not to provide the data, we will always tell you if it's optional.

How we store this data

We will keep personal information about you while you are a pupil at our school. We may also keep it after you have left the school, where we are required to by law.

We have a data retention policy which sets out how long we must keep information about pupils.

In most cases we hold your data until the year of your 25th Birthday.

The policy can be requested by emailing dpo@wandlelearningtrust.org.uk

Data sharing

We do not share personal information about you with anyone outside the school without permission from you or your parents/carers, unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary for another reason allowed under data protection law, we may share personal information about you with:

- the local authority – to meet our legal duties to share certain information with it, such as concerns about pupils' safety and exclusions
- the Department for Education (a government department)
- your family and representatives selected by your family
- educators and examining bodies
- our regulator (the organisation or "watchdog" that supervises us), e.g. Ofsted
- suppliers and service providers – so that they can provide the services we have contracted them for
- financial organisations – for school meals, trips etc

- central and local government
- health authorities
- health and social welfare organisations
- professional advisers and consultants – to support with the developments and management of the school
- police forces, courts, tribunals

National Pupil Database

We are required to provide information about you to the Department for Education (a government department) as part of data collections such as the school census.

Some of this information is then stored in the National Pupil Database, which is managed by the Department for Education and provides evidence on how schools are performing. This, in turn, supports research.

The database is held electronically so it can easily be turned into statistics. The information it holds is collected securely from schools, local authorities, exam boards and others.

The Department for Education may share information from the database with other organisations which promote children's education or wellbeing in England. These organisations must agree to strict terms and conditions about how they will use your data.

You can find more information about this on the Department for Education's webpage on how it collects and shares research data.

You can also contact the Department for Education if you have any questions about the database. Tel DFE - 0370 000 2288

Learner Records Service

The information you supply is used by the Learning Records Service (LRS). The LRS issues Unique Learner Numbers (ULN) and creates Personal Learning records across England, Wales and Northern Ireland, and is operated by the Education and Skills Funding Agency, an executive agency of the Department for Education (DfE). For more information about how your information is processed, and to access your Personal Learning Record, please refer to: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/lrs-privacy-notice>

Youth support services

Once you reach the age of 13, we are legally required to pass on certain information about you to the local authority, as it has legal responsibilities regarding the education or training of 13-19 year-olds.

This information enables it to provide youth support services, post-16 education and training services, and careers advisers.

Your parents/carers, or you once you're 16, can contact our data protection officer to ask us to only pass your name, address and date of birth to the local authority.

Your rights

How to access personal information we hold about you

You can find out if we hold any personal information about you, and how we use it, by making a 'subject access request', as long as we judge that you can properly understand your rights and what they mean.

If we do hold information about you, we will:

- give you a description of it
- tell you why we are holding and using it, and how long we will keep it for
- explain where we got it from, if not from you or your parents
- tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- let you know if we are using your data to make any automated decisions (decisions being taken by a computer or machine, rather than by a person)
- give you a copy of the information

You may also ask us to send your personal information to another organisation electronically in certain circumstances.

If you want to make a request please contact our data protection officer.

Your other rights over your data

You have other rights over how your personal data is used and kept safe, including the right to:

- say that you don't want it to be used if this would cause, or is causing, harm or distress
- stop it being used to send you marketing materials
- say that you don't want it used to make automated decisions (decisions made by a computer or machine, rather than by a person)
- have it corrected, deleted or destroyed if it is wrong, or restrict our use of it
- claim compensation if the data protection rules are broken and this harms you in some way

Complaints

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with us in the first instance by contacting the Data Protection Officer. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

Contact us

If you have any questions, concerns or would like more information about anything mentioned in this privacy notice, our data protection officer is Mr Hepworth who can be contacted by emailing dpo@wandlelearningtrust.org.uk

This notice is based on the Department for Education's model privacy notice for pupils, amended to reflect the way we use data in Wandle Learning Trust.
